
Summary: The patient and her daughter are in one pool because they function together as a unit in managing Shirley's care. The medical care center is one pool with a lane for the clerk and a lane for the physician. The EMR/information systems is a collapsed pool that exchanges information. In this marked up diagram, the green print shows what is working efficiently in the workflow, and the red print is what is inefficient.